

SAS Safety Warranty

As an ISO 9001:2008 certified company; all goods sold by SAS Safety Corp. are carefully manufactured, tested, inspected, checked and packaged by experienced workers, and are as free from defects as possible prior to leaving the factory. Any goods sold by SAS Safety Corp. under the terms and conditions contained herein that may prove defective by reason of material workmanship within 90-days after shipment will be replaced. SAS Safety Corp. Oil-less Air pump has a 1-year manufacture defect warranty to the original owner from the date of purchase. Alleged defective pumps cannot be returned for credit. Repairs must have a Return Goods Authorization (RGA) Number. Serial number and date code will be needed. If date code is more than 1-year, owner must provide a copy of the original receipt prior to obtaining a Return Goods Authorization (RGA) number. At the sole discretion SAS Safety Corp. we will repair or replace (one time only), at no charge. Customer is responsible for freight charges to SAS Safety Corp. in all cases. Oil-less air pumps out of warranty needing repairs will require a Return Goods Authorization (RGA) Number for an estimate of repair. Repairs not covered under warranty have a 30-days guarantee. Oil-less air pumps must be returned in its original product packaging materials or equivalent, and/or be will padded, to prevent damage when in transit, and should be adequately insured by customer.